

2017-2018 Winter News

Hi, Happy New Year!

Our big news for 2018 -

The National Learning Network are our newest client for the VERI mobile app for digitising their training quality management.

We hope 2018 will be a busy one for you, to save you time Veri will send you a monthly update on all things "Training Compliance" in 2018.

DATA PROTECTION-

99 working days to GRPR legislation. Concerns and losses of personal information and sensitive data can lead to regulatory fines and significant risk to an organisation's reputation. By implementing good practices and conforming to the associated requirements training organisations can be compliant. Why not digitise the large amount of data held for your trainingmore

SKILLS AUDITS 2018

Key skills are in short supply The Department of Education announced a range of new supports aimed at ensuring that businesses here have the skilled employees they need now and into the future.

The Minister for Education Richard Bruton said the "skills audit tool" will help employers understand their skill needs and influencing training provision.

Veri new Skills audit function is now live with reports for all skills based assessment.

QQI RE-ENGAGEMENT 2018

Find out all about how VERI can be used for Self Evaluation in terms of QQI Re-engagement on our website here or

Join us on either Monday 29th January or Wednesday 31st January, click here to book your place.

FUNDING Enterprise has asked Veri to help them promote the competitive start fund for all businesses in 2018. Winning the €50,000 prize this time last year allowed us to employ our CTO Shane who is the genius behind Veri. Read more about Shane here.

Lastly,

CALLING ALL TUTORS

We want your opinion on Training compliance and admin, so a survey is winging it's way to over 100 tutors in January on their opinions, click here if you would like participate and WIN – Weekend in Kilkenny and tickets for TRADFEST.